Child protection – Self declaration form

All applicants for Short-term Service with Global Interaction must complete and submit this form along with their application form

Confidential

The UN Convention of the Rights of the Child (1989) states that any person under the age of 18 years is deemed to be a child. The convention, which takes due account of the importance of the traditions and cultural values of each people for the protection and harmonious development of the child, states that a child has a right to be protected from physical and mental violence, injury, abuse, neglect or negligent treatment, maltreatment or exploitation including sexual abuse. This has been ratified by all countries, except the USA, Somalia, and South Sudan.

In accordance with this convention we require that all applicants seeking to work or volunteer with us abide by good practice and agree to keep children safe from harm when relating and working with children. In addition we ask that all applicants declare the following.

Please note: a YES to any of the following will be followed up but may not automatically prevent possible service

(Please circle)

Have you ever been convicted of, or charged with, a criminal offence YES NO

Have you ever had permission to undertake paid or voluntary work with children refused, suspended or withdrawn in Australia or any other country? YES NO

Have you ever done anything in the past or present that may result in allegations being made against you of child abuse? YES NO

(Child abuse means any abuse of children's rights. The main types of child abuse are physical abuse, sexual abuse, emotional abuse and neglect)

If YES to any of the above, please state the nature, date(s) and details on a separate page.
