WESTERN AUSTRALIA - NEWSLETTER SPRING 2011

empowering communities to develop their own distinctive ways of following Jesus

From the State Director

We can be proud, as Australian Baptists of our commitment over the years to cross-cultural ministry.

This year, Global Interaction has represented Australian Baptists at the 60 year celebrations of the churches among the Garo people in the northern Indian state of Assam, as well as at similar celebrations among the Enga people in the Western Highlands province of PNG. Keith Jobbens, General Director of Global Interaction, who attended the celebrations, remarked: "I have been overwhelmed by the expressions of gratitude from these communities that Australian Baptists cared enough to send cross-cultural workers to share the good news of Jesus' love with them."

As part of our ongoing commitment to global mission, I invite Baptists in Western Australia to unite on the weekend of 14-16 October for Just Prayer: to gather and pray for the people groups which still have not heard the name of Jesus.

Thank you for your partnership in the gospel,

Andrew Duncan
State Director Western Australia

Baptist communities praying for the least-reached people groups of the world

There are still thousands of people groups around the world which haven't heard the message of Jesus due to cultural, political and linguistic barriers.

THOUSANDS! IS THIS JUST?

WE INVITE YOU TO PRAYER.

For one weekend, 14-16 October, Baptist communities across Australia will join together to pray for the people groups that are still to know Jesus. Gather with your youth group, small group, in your church service or with a bunch of friends. Whether it's for the whole weekend, or just a few minutes, join our nation in prayer.

PRAYER RESOURCES

A great collection of resources is now online to help you and your community participate in the Just Prayer weekend. Resources include creative prayer ideas for churches, youth and children's activities, videos, powerpoints and people group information. www.globalinteraction.org.au

Global Interaction projects

Our cross-cultural workers need and appreciate the regular financial and prayer support of faithful partners.

Supporting a project is another great way to partner with our teams and their ministry.

Your support of a project equips our cross-cultural workers to connect with their community and share Jesus' love in culturally appropriate ways.

Equipping leaders

South Asia

Each January, more than 200 local project workers meet together for two days. This conference gives workers the opportunity to raise common issues, share in recreational activities, receive teaching and join in times of prayer. The staff provide their own travel expenses and give up their own personal time to attend.

Project costs

For one person to stay for two nights costs $37.50

Total fundraising target: $9,000

It's not about ping pong

Pip, a Global Interaction worker in Cambodia, plays ping pong with a group of teenagers each week. Their "coach" is Chanty, a young Khmer lady who became a Christian a year ago while working part-time for Pip as a cook and cleaner.

Chanty and Pip set up three table tennis tables in a church building and almost thirty young people participate each week. They play ping pong for an hour and study bible stories. Chanty and Pip prepare the lessons together.

Most of the participants are in Grade 1-4, so the simple studies also improve their education. Chanty reads the story to them, reads it again with them, teaches about the story, asks questions and writes a short summary for the students to copy into their exercise books.

Recently Pip noticed a girl quietly pick up a whiteboard marker and scrawl on the board: "God is a good person" and "God is Lord". Then a couple of boys used the whiteboard to practice their addition. These are young people who have quit school, stay out late, experiment with drugs and alcohol and don't listen to their parents. Pip wonders, "Maybe they just need something to do? Maybe they're just looking for someone who cares about them?"

Chanty knows each one of these young people by name. She visits their homes and talks with their families. She listens to their struggles and their desire for their children to "turn out good". Their parents call Chanty, "teacher", but she readily confesses, "I'm not really a sports coach. I'm not an education specialist. I can't give you all the answers about how to raise your children...but I can tell you about Jesus."

Pip says: "It's not about the ping pong. It's really not about the ping pong."

Please pray

We are dependent on God for all that we do, and prayer forms the foundation of our work. For weekly prayer updates email hotline@globalinteraction.org.au

- Pray that there will be a revival among least-reached people groups as they discover Jesus.
- Pray for strength, encouragement and discernment for all the Global Interaction cross-cultural workers as they seek to speak the name of Jesus.
- Pray for more churches and individuals to partner with Global Interaction's work - through prayer, financial giving, and going.

We need you

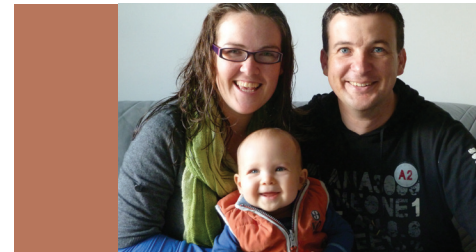

We need people who can build relationships, get to know others, and share life and faith in authentic ways. We need people in all areas (some specific needs are listed). Do you know someone who can get involved?

- Church planters
- TESOL teachers
- Vocational trainers
- Teachers for team children
- Administrators

For more information about these and other opportunities, contact Andrew Duncan on 08 6313 6300 or aduncan@globalinteraction.org.au

In our churches

There are a number of team members currently in Western Australia who are keen to share their stories with you (some profiled below). Please contact your State Office (call 08 6313 6300) to arrange a time for them to visit.

Scott and Rebekah with Levi

Mozambique

Rebekah spent 2007-2009 living and working with the Yawo in Mozambique. Now, along with their son Levi, Scott and Rebekah are preparing to return to the team. They hope to join the team early in 2012 (if not before)!

Arthur and Debbie

Malawi

Arthur and Debbie both worked for Global Interaction in Africa in the 80s. They're now preparing to join the team in Malawi as long-term members. They will initially focus on language and culture learning and they look forward to discovering how their gifts can be best used to serve God in Malawi. They hope to join the team early in 2012.

Ayla

Ayla feels truly blessed that she had someone in her life to share God's greatest gift: Jesus. This is where her passion for least-reached people has stemmed from: a firm belief that everyone should have the opportunity to hear the good news of Jesus. Ayla is a primary school teacher and is keen to see how God can use her skills and gifts in a cross-cultural setting.
