Shaping culturally sensitive followers of Jesus

Contextual ministry in our own backyard

How can we connect with our neighbours and share the gospel in culturally appropriate ways? How can we empower people to develop their own distinctive ways of following Jesus? Keith Jobberns takes lessons learnt from cross-cultural mission and helps us think about how we can genuinely engage in incarnational ministry in our own backyard.

Speaker: Keith Jobberns

Keith is a leader and a practitioner with many years experience in both pastoral ministry and cross-cultural work. For the past seven years he has been the General Director of Global Interaction.
