

GLOBAL | INTERACTION

We've all got skills and gifts and talents. You may be a teacher, a mechanic or an optometrist. You may be a specialist in IT, income generation or public health. Whatever you're good at; God is on the lookout for people who are keen to use their skills to serve Him.

We need people who love Jesus and are prepared to do all they can to see that others have the opportunity to love Him too. Our primary need is for people who will live in communities where Jesus is not known; people who will spend time learning the language and gaining an understanding of the culture. We need you.
